If you are printing this playlist, imagine how it might fit in a 3-ring binder. When the binder is closed, page one of each song will be face down and page 2 of the same song will be face up. That way, when you open to play each song, page one will be on the left side and page 2 on the right, so you can see the whole song at once. For the 1 song that has 3 pages, tape page 2 to page 3 and don't hook page 3 into the binder, so that you can unfold it out from the book to have all 3 pages open at once.

Bring a clip light or flashlight to shine on the pages (but please don't wear a headlamp). The campfire does not usually provide enough light to see (and some years we can't have a fire bc of burn bans).

If you don't know a song, just hum along. It sounds really cool!

This year, we will begin with a 30 minute tuning meditation, then go into "Come Goddess," a song by Greta (in G), before we begin the first song in the book. We will take 2 breaks early on for rituals and blessings before fully diving in. Hang loose as far as if we'll provide music or silence during these rituals. Hang loose in general. Fill your heart with love and let it overflow into everyone else's hearts! Don't be afraid of messing up. Play with abandon, knowing we love you. Music loves you. Music is waiting for you to love it back. Joy awaits!
